

Emacs

Doc Writer <christian.popescu@outlook.com> v 1.0, 2021-11-28 :toc:

Emacs is an extensible, customizable, free/libre text editor — and more.

Project site

Emacs cheatsheet

1.Editing

- Cut - C+w
- Copy - M+w
- Paste - C+y

Change theme

M-x customize-themes → to switch to a buffer named Custom Themes

```
Type RET or click to enable/disable listed custom themes.
Type ? to describe the theme at point.
Theme files are named *-theme.el in 'custom-theme-load-path'.
```

Save Theme Settings

☐ Select more than one theme at a time

Available Custom Themes:

- ☐ adwaita -- Face colors similar to the default theme of Gnome 3 (Adwaita).
- ☐ deeper-blue -- Face colors using a deep blue background.
- ☐ dichromacy -- Face colors suitable for red/green color-blind users.
- ☐ leuven -- Face colors with a light background.
- ☐ light-blue -- Face colors utilizing a light blue background.
- ☐ manoj-dark -- Very high contrast faces with a black background.
- ☒ misterioso -- Predominantly blue/cyan faces on a dark cyan background.
- ☐ tango-dark -- Face colors using the Tango palette (dark background).
- ☐ tango -- Face colors using the Tango palette (light background).
- ☐ tsdh-dark -- A dark theme used and created by Tassilo Horn.
- ☐ tsdh-light -- A light Emacs theme.
- ☐ wheatgrass -- High-contrast green/blue/brown faces on a black background.
- ☐ whiteboard -- Face colors similar to markers on a whiteboard.
- ☐ wombat -- Medium-contrast faces with a dark gray background.